

More Jobs Coming to Banks County!

On Thursday, December 4th, from 1 pm to 3 pm at the Banks County Adult Learning Center there will be a recruitment event for job seekers. The partnership of the Georgia Department of Labor, the Development Authority of Banks County, the Banks County Chamber CVB, Banks County Government, and Lanier Technical College is proud to announce this opportunity to get a new job with Banks County's newest company.

Factory Direct Wholesale is an internet sales company. The company has a new location in Banks County. They need 30-40 new employees. The working environment is team focused and drug free. Employer will conduct a drug screen and background check. Factory Direct Wholesale was recruited to fulfill a portion of the Banks Crossing Redevelopment Plan adopted by the Banks County Commission in 2012. Factory Direct Wholesale has located in a portion of the former "Pottery" property. Check out their website at www.factorydirectwholesales.com.

Interested candidates may apply in person at the Factory Direct Wholesale Recruitment Event

Thursday, December 4th, 1pm-3pm

Banks County Adult Learning Center

127 Hudson Valley Drive

Homer, GA 30547

Qualified candidates will be interviewed on site. Please dress appropriately for an interview and provide a current résumé. The Banks County Adult Learning Center recently added a large classroom area thanks to the Banks County Maintenance Department finishing out the space.

Interested job seekers may apply online at the Georgia Department of Labor at www.dol.state.ga.us.

*GA#8236460 (Customer Service Representative)

*GA#8236500 (Supervisor)

*GA#8219856 (Warehouse Worker)